Legacy Lives 2009 will focus upon the importance of legacy planning in the bidding and staging of major sporting events via keynote presentations and six legacy interactive workshop streams covering sport, venues, place branding, social, measuring impact and environment/sustainability.

Legacy Lives is designed to meet the needs of cities planning a future bid, bidding, applicant, candidate and host cities. A key focus for 2009 will be the opportunity for delegates to also visit the 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games venues and Games Village in both Vancouver and Whistler.

Join world experts at this important event and make your contribution to 'raising the bar' of legacy knowledge.

'Major events have the power to create social, economic and environmental legacies. As hosts of the 2010 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games, we look forward to welcoming and learning from the world's leaders in this field while showcasing the unique ways British Columbia is leveraging legacy opportunities.'

Honourable Gordon Campbell,
Premier, Province of British Columbia, Canada.
